DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-2, 4-7 and 38-42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lemke et al. (US 5,255,485).

Lemke et al. disclose an adjustable tool including: a shaft 106 with calibration markings (132, 134); a cutting portion 130, i.e. a portion capable of cutting into material; a fastener engaging portion 102; an adjustment portion 116; and an adjustment mechanism 104 mounted on the shaft wherein the cutting portion and the fastener engaging portion can be rotated at different speeds with respect to one another (Figs. 4 and 5, col. 6, lines 47-68, col. 7 and col. 8, lines 1-2).

It is noted that a claim containing a "recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus" if the prior art apparatus teaches all the structural limitations of the claim. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1987).

Response to Arguments

Applicants' arguments submitted under "REMARKS" in the response filed on May 7, 2007 have been carefully considered.

Applicants' amendments to claims 8 and 43 overcome the rejections under 35 USC 112 second paragraph made in the previous office action. Accordingly, the Examiner is withdrawing the rejections.

Applicants' arguments with respect to the rejections of claims 1-2, 4-7 and 38-42 under 35 USC 102(b) as being anticipated by Lemke et al., are not persuasive since Applicants' arguments are not directed to claim limitations. Applicants are not claiming that the shaft has an externally threaded portion. Fig. 5 of Lemke et al. is marked up below to illustrate Applicants' invention.

Contrary to Applicants' arguments, elements 104 and 116 are mounted on the shaft. Element 104 is mounted on shaft 106 by means of pins 136 and 138 while element 116 is mounted or positioned on shaft 106.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 8-11 and 43-46 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
